

Scotland's care sector workers are angry that the Scottish Government have stolen £38m from their pockets to improve sick pay, maternity, and paternity pay.

Care workers are asking unions to support the 'Missing Millions' campaign by signing the Megaphone letter to Scottish Government and joining UNISON, UNITE and GMB at their rally outside the Scottish parliament.

Care workers are there for you and your loved ones, now is the time to support them!

Letter to Scottish Government

Rally and Lobby at the Scottish Parliament
Thursday 25 April
11.00 to 12.00